

You are cordially invited to attend

The Fall 2014 Capstone Forum

of the International Cultural Studies Graduate Certificate Program

Yohei Sekiguchi, Ph.D. Program in American Studies will present

"Transformed Significance of White Fatherhood in Late Twentieth Century American Literature"

❖ Advisor: Professor Mari Yoshihara, Ph.D.
Department of American Studies

Ryan Knight, Ph.D. Program in Political Science will present

"The Autonomous is Political:
Social Movement Studies, Cultural Theory,
and the Contemporary Languages of Emancipation"

❖ Advisor: Professor Kathy Ferguson, Ph.D.
Department of Political Science

The Capstone Forum provides an opportunity for students in the program to present their final project in the company of their project advisors and fellow scholars.

Friday, December 12
9 – 11 am
Burns Hall 4005

For more information on our program,
Please visit <http://manoa.hawaii.edu/internationalculture>
Or contact Program Director, Dr. Nandita Sharma at nsharma@hawaii.edu