(Syllabus subject to modification)

Facilitator: Professor Ruth Y. Hsu / rhsu@hawaii.edu /
(808) 956 3049 (KUY 512) / (808) 944 7593 (Burns 2069)

Office Hours: Mondays – 11:30 to 1:00 (KUY 512), Wednesdays -- 1:30 to 2:30 (Burns 2069)

Purpose: This 1-credit course is one of the three core requirements of the Graduate Certificate Program (the others being 610 and 750, the Capstone project and forum). 609 is best taken concurrently with CUL 610, Graduate Seminar in Cultural Studies.

Requirements:

1. Attendance consists of the first (Sept. 4) and final talk of the semester (Nov. 20), the talk scheduled for Oct. 2, and the Capstone Forum, Dec. 13 (Friday), 9 am to 11 am, in Burns 4005,
2. Of the remaining talks, you may 'drop' two.
3. A ½-page, single-spaced (minimum) analysis and response paper of the talks that you attend, to be handed in at or before noon, on the Wednesday following the talk to your Laulima Drop Box.
4. If you are not concurrently registered in CUL 610, a 5-page, double-spaced paper on the talks will be due on or before December 13, also at your Laulima Drop Box. This paper is waived in the case of students also enrolled in CUL 610 this semester.

Texts: See next page of this syllabus for a list of speakers. Also available at the International Cultural Studies website:
